COMMENTS: Candidate's wife submitted waiver request by fax and states that they have never done anything like this before and she now sees that they both misunderstood the filing requirements pertaining to contributions. She said at the beginning of the election period candidate received a small donation which was reported on 30-P. She said they did not receive any more contributions and did not have any more expenditures so they honestly that the 10-G was required only if they had additional activity. She states that she would like the fine waived or reduced and he is not ever running for office again.

To Whom It May Concern:

I'm writing to you today to ask for reconsideration of the fine that has been imposed on my husband, Troy Guitreau, who ran for Constable Ward 5, Livingston Parish in the November 3rd, 2020 election.

You see, neither of us have ever done anything like this before and I see now that we both misunderstood the filing requirements pertaining to contributions. At the beginning of the election period, we received a small donation from a friend which was reported on the 30th day prior to primary report along with our personal funds used for signage. We received no other donations and spent no more of our own money so we thought there was nothing else to report. I honestly thought that the 10-G was only if we had received more money.

Then we received a certified letter at the beginning of December saying that the 10-G was late. I immediately filled it out and faxed it in, showing the dates from the last report filed up to the date of the current report, thinking I was "covering all the bases". We received another letter in March saying we owed a $400 fee for the 10-P that was filed late, not realizing that it had not been accepted as the 10-G until receiving the most recent letter dated April 27th, 2021. We paid the $400 dollars in March and thought we were done with politics but I see we were wrong yet again. I am resubmitting a report marked as the 10th day prior to general showing as I stated previously, that no other funds were received nor spent on the election.

Please consider waiving or at least reducing the fine that is now being imposed against Troy Guitreau. He nor I will be running for any other office so this will not be an issue ever again.

Sincerely,
